Trade Deadline: Week 11
Time on waivers: 1 day

Trade review: Voted on in 'football-polls' channel in Discord

Trades will be processed after a 24-hour period, if there is no suspected collusion. A trade can be pushed through sooner if both GMs involved in the trade tell the commissioner to push it, and there are no vetos

A GM that is involved in the trade is responsible for making the poll. The two teams involved in the trade do not get to vote.

Punishments

The punishment for not paying the buy-in by the due date is that the team will be locked from making any moves or lineup changes until payment is received

The punishment for coming in last place is that the GM is responsible for logistically getting the trophy to the new champion. The last place GM also gets their team's name chosen by the champion the following season

The punishment for refusing to accept the name change is that the team will be locked until the name change has taken place

The punishment for collusion is that both GMs will be banned from all SEMO leagues indefinitely
